MORE THAN STITES & HARBISON

Andrew joined the firm after running his own practice for eight years litigating and assisting his clients with business disputes, estate planning and elder law.

Andrew started his legal career serving as law clerk to the Honorable Arnold B. Goldin, Chancellor for Shelby County Chancery Court, Part II, for two years (2003-05). Judge Goldin currently serves on the Tennessee Court of Appeals, Western Division. Prior to joining Stites & Harbison, he was an associate attorney at Memphis Law Firms (2005-11) and had his own practice from 2011-19.

Andrew loves travelling with his family, hunting, fishing, and canoeing, and watching his daughters in ballet and soccer.
