Hal Gill is a member of the firm's Real Estate Service Group in the Atlanta and Nashville offices. Over his career, Hal has developed a multifaceted, nationwide real estate and finance practice. Hal represents numerous local, regional and national banks throughout Georgia, Tennessee and the Southeast in closing bilateral and syndicated loans secured by commercial real estate, and loans secured by the business assets of corporate borrowers. He also maintains a significant practice focusing upon the closing and subsequent development of land assemblages for residential, commercial and mixed-use projects. In addition, Hal represents a variety of companies and investors across many industry sectors.

Hal served as the Office Executive Member of Stites & Harbison's Atlanta office from June 2018-May 2025. Under his leadership, the Atlanta office has tripled in size, becoming a true full-service office representing the firm's growing client base in the region.
